Last year, our public loved the American Heritage Dictionary offer. This year, Parliament has cooked up an even better value. It brings your customers back to order additional books for gifts.

The Cheese Book tells everything there is to know about cheese, in everyday language. History, lore, taste, use and recipes.

Great Dishes Of The World. An exciting book for beginners and experienced cooks alike. All recipes are the result of Chef Robert Carrier's worldwide travels.

"The World Atlas of Wine is many books – a major reference work, a travel guide to the world's great wine areas, a wonderfully illustrated course in wines and wine making . . . a joy to read."

Three things are important to every cook: one, knowing the basic way to prepare a favorite dish. Two, knowing many variations of the basic recipe. Three, owning James Beard's Fireside Cook Book, which clearly explains 800 basic recipes with their 400 variations.

Call your Parliament representative – he has all the details for this new sales-building promotion. Is your standing order up to date?

Good taste. Good times. Good profits. Stock Parliament, Box, King Size and 100's!
